Rules & Guidelines

- Booths will be distributed on a first-come, first-served basis. Booths will be assigned according to the date a paid application is received and approved. Paid booth rental is non-refundable due to any reason, including inclement weather. Rental funds will only be refunded if application is denied or if the event is canceled by organizers.
- The event will start at 12 p.m. - rain or shine. Vendors must keep booths open during event hours and must not pack-up prior to 7 p.m. Vendors may choose to stay in place on Main Street or Third Street during the evening concerts (Time TBD) as the crowd/concert will be on the same street. Note: Because of street closures, vehicles will not be allowed entry to pack-up until after the crowd has dismissed following the concert (approximately 10 p.m.). If any early packing up is done, items must be toted off-site.
- Booth set up will begin Saturday, Oct. 7, 2023, at 9:30 a.m. ALL VEHICLES MUST BE UNLOADED IMMEDIATELY AND MOVED FROM THE SETUP LOCATION BY 10:30 A.M. You will have until 12 p.m. to set up your items. Parking will be available on side streets around the festival. Note: Food trucks will begin arriving at 10:30 a.m. to cap off the streets/intersections.
- Tables, chairs and tents are not furnished. Please bring your own if needed. Vendors are also responsible for bringing their own staging items. Be mindful of any cords if used.
- Vendor MUST remain in their assigned location. No moving of spaces will be allowed. You will be emailed a map locating your booth space the week of the festival.
- Rison Shine/Rison in the Fall does not guarantee sales.
- Vendors are solely responsible for complying with Rison Shine/Rison in the Fall regulations, and city and state tax regulations. A sales tax packet will be provided as you set up. Sales tax will be collected as you leave, unless you agree and sign off to return sales tax due with your regular tax payments. Packets may be turned into festival staff or left at the Cleveland County Herald office on Main Street.
- Rison Shine/Rison in the Fall reserves the right to regulate and/or refuse any items/vendors it deems improper or offensive.
- Vendors grant permission to promoter to use images of vendor booths/items for any purpose in promoting the event. The promoter may crop, alter or modify/combine such images with other images, text and graphics without notifying vendor. Vendor grants permission to use his/her name and any other information provided by vendor to the promoter to be displayed as necessary in order to promote the event.
- The promoter is not liable for "Acts of God" which may result in the cancellation, rescheduling or modification of the event. The booth rental agreement shall terminate and the vendor waives any claims for damages. The promoter is not responsible for the loss or damage to vendor's property from theft, mysterious disappearances, or damages by fire, water, accident or any other cause. This include any damage due to an accident while loading or unloading.
- Sorry, no refunds after your payment has been received. Spaces are not held without complete payment.

By signing this application form, entrant releases and discharges the City of Rison, Rison Shine Community Development, Inc., Kickstart Cleveland County Community Development, Inc., event sponsors and anyone else associated with the representation of the Rison in the Fall Festival from any and all known or unknown damages, injuries leases, judgments and/or claims from any cause whatsoever that may be suffered by the entrant or participant to his/her property or person. Rison Shine/Rison in the Fall volunteers, their companies/entities, any festival sponsors or the City of Rison or Cleveland County are not liable for any injuries, theft, destruction, etc. to any vendor; their "help" or any of the vendor's products, props, or supplies. By signing this, you agree to hold no one liable for any personal or business losses or injuries. Rison Shine reserves the right to refuse entry to any person/persons.
